We've all heard those radio commercials promising to "repair" your credit: you pay a relatively small fee, they fix your credit, and the next thing you know, your credit is golden and you're closing on that dream house! Sounds too good to be true, right? Unfortunately, it usually is. The truth is, a credit repair company can't magically or legally remove negative, accurate information from your credit report. They also can't do anything to repair your credit that you can't and shouldn't do yourself. "The Race for Good Credit" will teach you everything you need to know to establish, maintain, and rebuild your credit the right way. No illegal tricks. No shortcuts. Just proven strategies to increase your credit score. Along the way you will learn about credit-related subjects and topics, including that all-important FICO(R) credit score, how information is collected on your credit report, the impact of debt on your credit score, how to protect yourself from identity theft, and much, much more. Want to win the credit race? Like any athlete, winning takes time, some effort, and a little bit of patience. Let me be your coach and let's run this race together!

Dana Neal knows first hand the consequences of bad credit - how a financial setback can leave you unable to buy a house or car, rent an apartment, get insurance or even land a job. But the former collection agency insider also knows that flawless credit is in everyone's reach. In easy-to-understand terms, the author explains how the credit game is played, the roles of the various players, and the ways in which the credit industry stacks the odds against consumers He then presents a straightforward, no-nonsense plan to show you how to win the credit game by getting others to play by your rules!

In the present book, How to Win Friends and Influence People, Dale Carnegie says, "You can make someone want to do what you want them to do by seeing the situation from the other person's point of view and arousing in the other person an eager want." You learn how to make people like you, win people over to your way of thinking, and change people without causing offense or arousing resentment. For instance, "let the other person feel that the idea is his or hers" and "talk about your own mistakes before criticizing the other person." This book is all about building relationships. With good relationships, personal and business successes are easy and swift to achieve. Twelve Ways to Win People to Your Way of Thinking 1. The only way to get the best of an argument is to avoid it. 2. Show respect for the other person's opinions. Never say "You're wrong." 3. If you're wrong, admit it quickly and emphatically. 4. Begin in a friendly way. 5. Start with questions to which the other person will answer yes. 6. Let the other person do a great deal of the talking. 7. Let the other person feel the idea is his or hers. 8. Try honestly to see things from the other person's point of view. 9. Be sympathetic with the other person's ideas and desires. 10. Appeal to the nobler motives. 11. Dramatize your ideas. 12.Throw down a challenge.

In difficult times, debt can be a matter of life and death, happiness and despair. Controlling your debt can bring order and calm. Mastering debt can bring wealth and success. As bestselling Rich Dad/Poor Dad author Robert Kiyosaki says, "Good debt makes you rich and bad debt makes you poor." The ABCs of Getting Out of Debt provides the necessary knowledge to navigate through a very challenging credit environment. A Rich Dad's Advisor and best selling author of numerous business books, Garrett Sutton, Esq. clearly writes on the key strategies readers must follow to get out of debt. Unlike other superficial offerings, Sutton explores the psychology and health effects of debt. From there, the reader learns how to beat the lenders at their own game, and how to understand and repair your own credit. Using real life illustrative stories, Sutton shares how to deal with debt collectors, avoid credit scams, and win with good credit. "The reason Garrett Sutton's book is so important is that like it or not, debt is a powerful force in our world today. The financially intelligent are using debt to enrich themselves while the financially uneducated are using debt to destroy their lives."- Robert Kiyosaki The times call for a book that offers hope and education on mastering credit and getting out of debt.
