The Mablethorpe Wildlife and Seal Sanctuary is opposite Golden Sands too, and we loved our visit here. They have a lovely collection of wildlife including birds, reptiles, porcupines and of course seals that have been rescued and are being looked after until they can return to the wild.

Golden Sands Holiday Park - Haven Review

But how did Golden Sands measure up? Well, to put it this way, we were out until late almost every night of the trip. We found Golden Sands to be a great resort, with a great mix of options. As with most resort destinations, you need to pick the time you visit very carefully. It will be extremely quiet outside the peak summer season.

"Golden Sands Holiday Park Rhyl has over 85 years history of fun filled holidays. Wonderfully located right next to the beach in Kinmel Bay in North Wales it's the perfect place for a family seaside holiday. It's also an excellent base for exploring the beauty of North Wales. The town of Rhyl is closest though also nearby are Prestatyn Colwyn Bay and Llandudno with the Great Orme. Blue ...

Stayed in the Golden Sands last year so it was an easy choice to do the same this. The only let down was the uncomfortable mattresses but that was soon forgotten with the rest of the stay. Friendly and obliging staff, clean and well maintained areas and having the sea view and balcony made it extra special.
